Food Collection Donations

Holy Family's Food Outreach inventory is decreasing and we are entering a period (summer vacation) when it usually continues to decrease. Please redouble your efforts for donations to the food collection boxes at both churches. Especially needed are canned goods (soups, vegetables, fruit, etc.) They will also accept supermarket gift cards. Remember, hunger never takes a vacation. God loves a cheerful giver.

Living the Principles of Catholic Social Teaching Care of God's Creation

A decision on whether the United States will remain in the Paris Agreement on Climate Change will soon be made. The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops is asking Catholics to ask President Trump to honor the United States' commitment to the Paris Agreement and to join all nations in contributing to the common good. The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops has long supported environmental stewardship and US commitment to prudent climate action. In his encyclical Laudato Si', Pope Francis called on the world's leaders to come together to protect the gift of our common home. The Pope has continually called for the commitment of all nations to the Paris Agreement.

Diocese of Wilmington
Anniversary Pilgrimage to Anney and Rome
Spiritually led by Bishop W. Francis Malooly
April 16 to 26, 2018

As part of the Diocese of Wilmington's 150th anniversary celebration, a pilgrimage to Anney, Rome and Assisi will take place April 16 – 26, 2018. And you are invited!

Anney, the birthplace of Saint Francis de Sales, patron saint of the Diocese of Wilmington, is an alpine town in southeastern France, where Lake Anney feeds into the Thiou River. It's known for its cobbled streets, winding canals, and pastel-colored houses. Rome, Italy's capital, is a sprawling, cosmopolitan city with nearly 3,000 years of globally influential art, architecture and culture on display, including ancient ruins such as the Forum and the Colosseum. It is the home of Vatican City, headquarters of the Roman Catholic Church, St. Peter's Basilica and the Vatican Museums, as well as the burial place of Blessed Pope Pius IX, the diocese's founder. Assisi is a hill town in central Italy's Umbria region. It was the birthplace of St. Francis, one of Italy's patron saints.

For more information about this affordable, once-in-a-lifetime pilgrimage, including a day-to-day itinerary, exclusive features, and pricing, go to www.cdw.org/anniversary-pilgrimage.

“Elevation”

While reciting the words of Jesus from the Last Supper, the Presider of the Mass shows the consecrated bread and wine to the assembly. His gesture is commonly called the elevation. With each elevation, he actually performs two actions. He shows the body and blood of Christ to everyone else, and then he genuflects in adoration.

There is no explicit instruction for what the assembly is to do during the elevation. However, because the Presider is instructed to show people the sacred elements, the obvious conclusion is that they should watch. Many worshipers lower their eyes and bow their heads in adoration as the Presider performs the elevation. This bow, well meaning in its devotion, probably belongs more with the genuflection that follows the elevation.

The elevation of the consecrated bread at Mass began in 13th-century Paris in an effort to bolster belief in the real presence of Christ in the Eucharist. Heresies expressing the contrary were flourishing. Because Eucharistic devotion at the time focused on the consecrated bread rather than on the cup, the elevation of the cup was only added later.

Although some presiders lift the consecrated bread and wine very high at this point of the Mass, height belongs more to the doxology that concludes the Eucharistic Prayer, to signify the offering to God. The elevation had to be high when it first appeared in the Mass because the priest, standing with his back to the people, had to raise the elements high enough to be seen.

The elevation permits the assembly to acknowledge their faith in the real presence of Christ in the Eucharist. Bells and incense may accompany it. Traditionally, many Catholics pray, “My Lord and my God” as the priest lifts the body and blood of Christ.

A Vocation Reflection 14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today's Gospel, Jesus says “My yoke is easy, and my burden light.” While the priesthood and religious life have many challenges, those who choose to accept God's invitation are blessed with tremendous joy and peace. If you think God might be calling you to take on this “blessed yoke”, please call or write Father Norm Carroll, Diocesan Director of Priestly and Religious Vocations at (302) 573-3113 or vocations@cdow.org. Be sure to visit our website, www.cdow.org/vocations!

2017 Quo Vadis Days

...for high school and college students will be Thursday, July 27 to Saturday, July 29 in Malvern, PA. This event offers a time of prayer, fraternity, sports and recreation focused on the life and ministry of the Priesthood. You will spend three days with other young men who have the same interest and aspiration in life. Is God calling me to be a Priest?

For more information and to register online, go to www.cdow.org/vocations. Registration deadline is July 9.

Do You Have a School Bond?

The Holy Angels School Educational Foundation stopped issuing Bonds as of the 2012 school year. The Finance Council has determined it no longer necessary to maintain the Fund and has elected to begin the process to recall all outstanding bonds and to close the Fund. Bond holders may redeem their bond for its face value OR donate it back to the Parish.

It is our hope you will exercise one of these options at your earliest convenience. Either option may be accomplished by endorsing the Bond and returning it to the Parish Center. Should you be unable to locate your Bond, redemption or donation is still possible by completing a "Lost Bond Affidavit", available at the Parish Office.

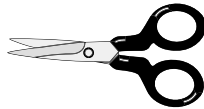

Visitors for Christ

Visitors for Christ are men and women commissioned by the parish to serve and minister to the sick, the convalescing, the elderly and the homebound of our parish family. We make short visits to homes, hospitals, and nursing homes bringing the prayers of the Parish and the Eucharist when requested. We also offer the opportunity to pray the rosary with you for your personal intentions and the needs of our community.

If you or someone you know would like a visit from the Visitors For Christ, please call the Parish Center, 731-2200, or June, 366-0711.

XIV DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Primera lectura Zacarías 9:9-10

Salmo Responsorial 44: "Te ensalzaré, Dios mío, mi rey, bendeciré tu nombre por siempre jamás".

Segunda lectura: Romanos 8:9, 11-13

Evangelio Mateo 11:25-30

La alabanza jubilosa de Jesús en el Evangelio de hoy, es un auténtico grito de alegría ante los resultados de la proclamación del Reino. Salta a la vista las cinco menciones del Padre en labios de Jesús. Miremos solo las primeras dos, dirigidas como alabanza exultante a Dios. Él es el Señor del universo; cielo y tierra son los dos términos para decir que nada se escapa a su dominio. En ese señorío se ajusta bien la revelación del Hijo. Jesús nos dice que lo que él revela de Dios es para gente llana y de corazón sencillo; nada de rebuscamiento. De allí el júbilo. La relación que el Evangelio de Jesús establece entre Dios y sus fieles es para descanso y regocijo de éstos; nada de yugos pesados y rebuscamientos para agobiar a los hijos de Dios. Entonces es cuando se pierde la alegría. El Evangelio nos invita a transformar la alegría de conocer a Dios en mansedumbre y humildad, como Jesús.
