Welcome!

We welcome all visitors this weekend, and hope you will enjoy being part of our parish family. We invite you to continue joining us each week at our liturgical celebrations.

Our Mission Statement

The Faith Community of St. John The Baptist-Holy Angels Parish believes that we are empowered by the Holy Spirit to proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ and to celebrate God's abiding presence among us.

We believe that Sacramental Worship is the source and summit of our Christian life, and that worshipping Jesus in union with the Father and the Holy Spirit is our highest calling.

We believe that God's creation is sacred and beautiful. We accept the responsibility to be stewards of all that God has entrusted to us, especially the gift of life itself.

We believe that, as brothers and sisters of Christ, we are called to live in peace. It is our responsibility to work for peace by seeking justice for all people.

We believe that we are called to proclaim the Gospel, by word and example, to the faithful, to those who have given up active participation in the Catholic Church, to those who have no church community, and to those who are seeking full communion with the Catholic Church.

The fulfillment of this mission is challenged by the geographic distance we encompass, and our large and ever-increasing membership and the diversity of needs among us.

Through the grace of God, may we be strengthened to fulfill this mission.

*For I was hungry and you gave me food,
I was thirsty and you gave me drink.*

Matthew 23:35

Many of us want to help our neighbor but are not sure how. The St. John-Holy Angels Beyond JustFaith Group, a social concerns ministry, has an opportunity for you to share with others. Some of our members visit the men at Andrew's Place Emergency Shelter, a ministry of Friendship House, to provide a meal and company once or twice a month for about an hour.

The next opportunity to serve is Wednesday, May 12, 2010 at 5:15 p.m. If you are interested in joining us on this visit or a future visit and/or would like to contribute to the meal, please contact Sharon Lennon at 302-834-4039 or sharonclennon@aol.com.

The remaining dates for this year are Sunday, May 23 and Wednesday, June 9.

Join the PAC!!! (Parish Activities Committee)

We are looking for help in staffing this committee to help plan and implement social and fund-raising activities to help foster the community spirit of our parish. For more information, please call 731-2431 or contact apress@holyangels.net. You can also fill out this form and turn it into the Parish or School office or place it into the collection basket in church.

Coupons for Commissaries

For military families who relocate overseas, the financial transition can be difficult. Enlisted Military Personnel and their families may find stretching their dollars a real challenge, even more so than those who are based in this country.

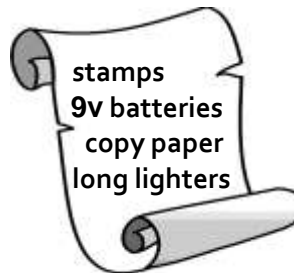

One way we can help is by saving expired or unused coupons and sending them to select commissary operations around the world. There are several military family support centers overseas who offer coupon exchanges. The military commissaries overseas accept manufacturer's cents-off coupons for up to six months past their printed expiration dates.

If you would like to participate, please clip coupons you would normally not use and deposit them in one of the marked collection receptacles at St. John The Baptist or Holy Angel Church, or forward your expired coupons (up to 4 months) to D. Maxwell, 14 West Ridge Court, Newark DE 19711.

Wish List

Christmas is months and months away but we are already starting our Parish Wish List. Check out some things we are already running out of in our supply cabinets. Can you help us out until Santa gets here? You can donate any of the needed items to the Parish Center, the School Office, or the batteries and stamps can be left in the collection basket. To request a tax letter for your donation, please place the item into an envelope with your request. We are asking for new items only please.

Attention, Parents and Grandparents

Finally what you want and need! For a limited time, the Knights of Columbus' St. Pius X council has made arrangements for you to receive 10%, off along with a $5 donation to be made in your name for logging onto: www.College-Financial-Aid-Info.com (don't forget the dashes) and purchasing the very popular Ultimate Guide To College Aid, a step by step guide that helps students and parents navigate the college selection and financial aid process. Just use the coupon code- Knights -at checkout. This is a great way to get The Guide at a 10% discount that you want and need to succeed for college, plus support the Knights of Columbus.

The Mass Texts Are Changing?!

Over the past several years, you have heard much through newspapers, websites, and the news about the forthcoming revised translation of the Roman Missal.

You may be wondering, "What is the Roman Missal, and how does this affect me?" Take notice of the text that the priest recites most often during Mass.

These prayers come from the red book called the Sacramentary, which together with the Lectionary for Mass make up the Roman Missal. The missal is the collection of prayers, chants, and rubrics (instructions) used to celebrate Mass. This includes prayers such as the Sign of the Cross; Opening Prayers; Eucharistic Prayers, etc. The majority of the prayers we recite or sing at Mass are contained in this book and it is these prayers that were recently re-translated from the original Latin into English.

In the early Christian Church, many of the Mass prayers were memorized and handed down orally. Scribes eventually collected the prayers and recorded them in the "book of sacraments." With the invention of the printing press, Mass texts became standardized and published universally. The texts were translated into English after Vatican II and published in 1969. A major revision occurred again, and the second edition of the Roman Missal was published in 1975.

In 2001, Rome issued a document, Liturgiam Authenticum, which called for a more literal translation of the original Latin, and so a group of scholars, poets, and theologians convened and worked painstakingly on providing a third English translation.

The Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments granted recognitio (approval) on April 30, 2010, and presented the texts to Pope Benedict XVI. It is most likely that these texts will be implemented on November 27, 2011, the First Sunday of Advent 2011. For more information visit www.usccb.org/romanmissal/.

Next time, we will discuss the difference you will notice in the text that the Assembly and Priest proclaim at Mass.

Poster Contest sponsored by Holy Angels Council, Knights of Columbus

Holy Angels Council is holding a Poster Contest for children in Grades 1-4. The topic is "Substance Abuse Awareness". A $50 gift certificate will be awarded for each grade's best poster.

To enter, submit an 11" x 17" poster warning of the danger of drug and/or alcohol abuse, addressed to Holy Angels Knights of Columbus. Please drop the poster off at the Parish Center by Monday evening, May 17th. Include your name, grade, school, address and telephone number on the back of your poster.

Please call Joe Colosi, 239-7709, with any questions.

"We have within our reach the promise of renewed America. We can find meaning and reward by serving some purpose higher than ourselves... a shining purpose, the illumination of a thousand points of light. It is expressed by all who know the irresistible force of a child's hand, of a friend who stands by you and stays there, a volunteer's generous gesture, an idea that is simply right."

National Volunteer Week was celebrated this year from April 18 to April 24. How did you spend your week? Looking for ways to continue to volunteer throughout the year? There are plenty of opportunities in right here in our parish home. We have many opportunities through service in liturgical ministry, music ministry, by becoming a catechist (teacher) for Religious Education, helping out with our maintenance ministry or with our fundraisers, helping work parish events, and many other areas. Please contact the Parish Office at 302-731-2219 or apress@holyangels.net for more information.
