“Threads of wisdom and connection...”

What’s coming? Who’s coming? Am I ready?”

What is the thread in my life that connects me to Jesus the Christ? As we begin this Year of Mercy, what will bring me to a deeper sense of compassion and connection with my sisters and brothers around this earthly home? What prophetic voices call us to recognize and live this message of the Gospel and Hebrew Scriptures?

Thank You!

The following letter was received this past week:

Dear Members,

We were so encouraged when Ronnie Hahn and her daughter, Sandy, came to our center on Monday, November 2 with a huge carload of baby presents for our Pregnancy Center. What a God-sent gift!

We cannot thank you enough for your great generosity to our center. The young mothers and fathers who come to our center earn these terrific gifts by attending our Earn While You Learn Program. It is a long series of parenting classes to help these young families get the basics of raising their children. Usually these young mothers come to us after their pregnancy test and they begin their journey from the 1st Trimester of pregnancy. Sometimes it is necessary to do our ultrasound on their babies to impress on them the importance of keeping their babies. This is the greatest of all joys. When they see the flutter of their baby’s heartbeat, they are convinced that motherhood is their best choice.

Thank you, Ronnie and Sandy, for your long dedication to our center, and to all of you who continually contribute to this huge cause for LIFE. We appreciate you, and let us continue to keep this great ministry alive and well.

Gratefully in Jesus,

Lorraine Fortune

Wine Tasting Fundraiser

Holy Angels Council 12104, Knights of Columbus, will host a Wine Tasting Fundraiser at Deerfield Wines on Tuesday, December 1 at 7:00 PM. Please join us for food and fun to kick off the Christmas Season. Food will be provided by Olé Tapas. We will offer raffle baskets and a 50/50. The suggested donation is $20.00.

The Knights of Columbus is a Catholic Fraternal Organization dedicated to serving our Community, Church, Families, Youth and members. As an active part of the community, we frequently hold fundraising events. All of the money we raised is used to support the St. John-Holy Angels Parish and Newark communities. Please join us and support our Parish Community!

Last week, Bishop Malooly sent a message to the clergy of Maryland alerting them to the push for Physician Assisted Suicide in the next session of the Maryland legislature. He also sent it to Delaware clergy and mentioned the possibility of its appearing once again in Delaware. In fact, Delaware State Representative Paul Baumbach, who introduced a bill for Physician Assisted Suicide in Delaware last year, has assembled an end of life task force that could well lead to the introduction of a “new and improved” version.

We need to be alert in both states. What can we do? First, this is a good time to find out about our Catholic Advanced Care Directives. For Delaware, the document can be found at http://www.cdow.org/AD_2005pdf. Second, those of you in Delaware can write, call or email Rep. Baumbach and let him know your opposition to his Physician Assisted Suicide bill (Carvel State Office Building, 820 N. French St., Wilm., DE 19801; (302) 577-8489; paul.baumbach@state.de.us).
