Finding a New Use for Some Pieces from St. John – Holy Angels History

The wooden pews, new and used wooden doors, and 40 folding metal chairs from the days when we had Mass in the old Holy Angels Church have been in storage since we opened the new church in 2004. It's time to find a new home/use for the items.

If you are interested in owning a piece of church history or know someone that could use these items, contact Jim Culley (jculleypersonal@gmail.com). Provide an email and Jim will send you a list and pictures of what we have.

A parishioner is no longer able to drive, and misses coming to Mass at Holy Angels Church each weekend. He lives in the Glen Farms area. If you would be willing to give him a ride, please call Annie at the Parish Office, 731-2200.

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells a parable about a man who sends his son to work in the vineyard. God calls many people to work in the vineyard known as the Church. Some are sent to serve as priests, others as deacons, still others as religious sisters and brothers. Is He trying to send you? If you think so, call or write Father Norm Carroll, Diocesan Director of Priestly and Religious Vocations at (302) 573-3113 or vocations@cdow.org. Be sure to visit our website, www.cdow.org/vocations/!

Evangelio Mateo 21: 28-32

A través de la parábola del Evangelio de hoy, Jesús nos enseña que lo que importa no son las apariencias externas, sino la actitud que se manifiesta en obras. La parábola sobre los dos hijos hace hincapié en la obediencia filial. En la estructura familiar y social la obediencia era tan indispensable como incuestionable.
